Course Conduct The majority of class time will involve listening to music, lecture, in class activities and discussion. Each student will be responsible for a presentation during class. Students will have the opportunity to visit The Arkansas Rep in Little Rock, and The Ft. Smith Symphony to view a production with musical emphasis. Other multimedia may be used in this course as well in the form of u-tube, documentaries and film.

The student should plan on reading from the text and allowing time to listen to course music. Group activities will be assigned for students to work on during class, as well as outside class time. Test will contain standard questions from the text, but will also contain audio questions that require the student to identify the title, composer, and or the genre of the work.

UA Rich Mountain Credit Hour Calculator For every course credit hour, the typical student should expect to spend at least three clock hours per week of concentrated attention on course-related work, including but not limited to time attending class, as well as out-of-class time spent reading, reviewing, organizing notes, preparing for upcoming quizzes/ exams, problem solving, developing and completing projects, and other activities that enhance learning. Thus, for a three hour course, a typical student should expect to spend at least nine hours per week dedicated to the course.

Course Requirement/Evaluation

	Total
There will be three exams worth 100 points per exam*..... (September 16, October 14, November 11)	300 points
Final exam (Comprehensive) during finals week.....	150 points

In class presentation …… 100 points

Each student will give a seven minute presentation in class covering one title from the list below. Five minutes of the presentation will be an informative speech with the other two minutes being a clip from dvd/vhs or u-tube. It will be first come first served when choosing off of the list. Only one student per music selection. Each student should expect to either find the material on the list in the UA Rich Mountain library, Polk County library, their local library, Netflix or an online service that carries the listed titles. Students without Blueray/dvd/vcr will need to find a player to access. If the student is unable to find the material, the instructor will make the choice for the student and provide the dvd/vhs. Here are a few ideas that should be covered for the informative speech presentation: plot or story line, composer/lyricist, importance in music history, instrumentation used, elements of music, back history, how often is the piece staged and etc. Research to get the information needed. The criteria for the presentation will be the following:

Meet the time limit of 7 minutes
Create a speech with a good introduction, body and conclusion
Only 3 notecards—(Reading from script/powerpoint will result in "F")
Powerpoint allowed, but only pictures and headings of topics
Make a connection with the audience and keep the attention of the audience
Be loud enough to be heard
Quality content of an informative speech
Don't repeat yourself and your information

Pick something you have not seen before!

Speeches will be given starting in November and ending in December. If students have a preference for a speaking date, please e-mail the instructor with the information early in the semester. Otherwise, speaking dates will be chosen during class time using a random drawing. All materials borrowed from the library and or Mr. Burt will need to be returned before the end of the semester. Students not returning materials will have a hold on their transcript and or the grade of "F" for the semester. Some of these dvd's will contain "Adult Content". Please find material that meets your needs.

Attending Live Music Presentation (Option 1)* (E-mail your choice by Aug. 30th)

Attend the following presentations and write a one page review covering the event. Discuss: music style, presentation, artists, style, your likes/dislikes, viewer engagement, etc. Here are the events: (1) Million Dollar Quartet on Sunday, Sept. 15 at 2:00 p.m at the Arkansas Rep in Little Rock(2) Ft. Smith Symphony on Saturday, November 2, at 7:30 p.m. The college will provide the ticket and transportation to and from Mena. We will be leaving for Little Rock at 9:45 a.m., and we will eat a fast food lunch in Hot Springs. We will leave for Ft. Smith at 5:15 p.m. and will return around midnight, we will stop at Braums for food and ice cream after the show. If the student does not show up for the first event after tickets have been ordered, the student will be asked to purchase their own ticket for the second event and/or asked to reimburse the college. Any student that misses two consecutive days of class will need to inform Mr. Burt if they are still going to the event. Failure to do so will result in the loss of your ticket. Paper deadline is Nov. 15th and will be submitted in Moodle as an attachment.

Attending Live Music Presentation and Research Paper (Option 2)* (E-mail me by Aug. 30th)

Pick one musical event in the previous paragraph, attend and write a one page review of the event as listed above. The college will provide the ticket and transportation. AND- You will write a 1,400-1,500 word paper. The topic will be picked by August 30th. Deadline for the paper is November 15th. The essay will be double spaced and in 12pt. font. Use the MLA style for citation and format. Each student will use the following resources for citation: One book, one e-book, two EBSCO articles, two scholarly internet sites. Sources will be cited in the works cited page as well as making a copy of the abstract or title page of the source to hand in as proof of research. Do not use Wikipedia. Word count on last page is expected. No plagiarism!! Paper deadline is Nov. 15th and will be submitted in Moodle as an attachment.

Class Procedures/ Student Requirements

Cell Phone Use

Do not use cell phones or devices during class time. Put away cell phones and devices so they do not become a distraction to you, the instructor, and other students. Failure to comply can possibly result in handing your device over to the instructor, or being asked to leave the classroom without taking quizzes or tests.

Missed Exams

The student must notify the instructor before any test if you have to miss due to an emergency or illness. You can leave me a message on the phone, leave me an e-mail, or slide a note under my door. It is your responsibility to get in touch with me. Remember, this is in the case of an emergency or illness. If you have contacted me with your emergency before class, it is up to you to set up a time to make up your work within a week of the missed class. Missing a test or assignment because you are not prepared is not acceptable. The make-up test will not be the same as the original test and will not follow the study guide. It will be to the best interest of the student to be in class on the day of an exam. Each student will be allowed one make up test due to an emergency or illness.

Attendance and tardies*

It is to the advantage of each student to be on time and attend each class. The student missing nine days of class will receive and automatic grade of "F" for the course. Each student is allowed one tardy. On the second tardy the student will lose 3 points and on the third tardy another 3 points and so on.The student missing the two class out of the first four will be dropped.

Inclement Weather Procedure

Listen to local radio and TV stations for UA Rich Mountain to be closed due to bad weather. If a test is assigned for the day the college is closed, your instructor will make adjustments and announce the make-up process the next time the class meets. You can also go to the campus website for this information. Log on to www.uarichmountain.edu

Semester Calendar

All students will follow the UA Rich Mountain calendar for breaks, testing, and weather days.

Academic Dishonesty Policy

Once a test or quiz has begun, there will be no talking in the classroom. Cheating on an exam or assignment will result in the grade of "F" for that assignment. The writing assignment is expected to be your own work. No Plagiarism!!! Each student guilty of academic dishonesty will be required to see the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs.

Disability Policy

It is the policy of UA Rich Mountain to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to state and federal law. Any student with a disability who needs accommodations (for example:

in seating placement, examinations, or access to information), should contact the Associate Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs Office, 394-7622 ext. 1460.

Arkansas Clean Air Act

In compliance with the Arkansas Clean Air Act, UA Rich Mountain is a smoke and tobacco free facility. Students and guests are to refrain from the use of all tobacco products while on campus.

Student Misconduct

Students committing misconduct are subject to disciplinary sanction(s) and or restrictions. Misconduct or prohibited behavior includes, but is not limited to endangerment, harassment, disruption, sexual misconduct, dishonesty, illegal drugs and/or alcohol, fire or safety issues, gambling, property violations, computer violations or other violations as listed in detail in the UA Rich Mountain catalog.

UA Rich Mountain Mission

UA Rich Mountain exists to provide all citizens of the Ouachita Mountain Region with exemplary educational and enrichment opportunities to improve the quality of life and the standard of living.

Campus Security: UA Rich Mountain strives to provide a safe learning environment; therefore, students who know of any security risk are asked to contact a college official. http://www.uarichmountain.edu/at-a-glance/disclosures
