Description of Assignments

13 Chapter quizzes in Blackboard X 10 points per quiz (drop the lowest)

You will earn points for these chapter quizzes, but you will also use these as a study guide for corresponding tests. There is a deadline for completion in Blackboard, once the deadline is over the student will not be able to receive credit for the closed assignment. Each quiz has a study guide located in Blackboard. Quiz material may also come from lecture or other media.

Ukraine theatre assignment (Feb 5)

Students will be given a link or handout from an about theatre in Ukraine. The student will have 15 minutes to answer short essay questions in Blackboard.

Theatre Model and ½ page description of the project (March 17 by noon)

Each student will build a scale model (1/8", 1/4" or 1/2") of a proscenium, thrust, or arena stage you would like to see on our campus. Each design will be concerned with the following: seating, stage/audience relationship, sightlines, audience entrance/exit, crossovers, light position, backstage space, masking, & aisles. Use foam board. Plan to spend 5-6 hours building the model. You are required to write a ½ page paper over your project & why you chose the space you are presenting. There will be links in Blackboard to explain theatre spaces and model building. Models that are incomplete or put together quickly will receive lower scores. The student will go into details concerning design elements in your paper. The paper can be dropped off at Mr. Burt's office in Mena or the Waldron or Mt. Ida campus by the deadline. Students outside the area can mail their model to the campus address found on the website.

Discussions

Ten discussions worth 4 points per discussion. The student will write five complete lines to receive full credit, partial posts will not receive full credit. Discussions posted after the deadline will not receive credit. Students that post and edit their discussion will only be able to receive ½ credit for the full post. Each of the following will be reasons for zero points are reduced points: plagiarism, incorrect grammar/spelling, posts that are inaccurate or not answering the prompt correctly. Discussion dates will be posted in Blackboard.

Four tests worth 75 points per test, test 2 and 4 will be taken with a proctor.

Eight Play Quizzes at 40 points per quiz

*Play Quizzes The plays on this list will either be read by the student, or the student will view a DVD or YouTube. Most importantly, be familiar with the material. The student can find these plays in one or more of the following ways: Online search, e-books through college library, video, purchase online, hardcopy in library or Blackboard, link from Blackboard.
