Course Conduct

Each student should connect and interact with Blackboard. This includes communication via e-mails from the instructor. Each student should read chapter material at home to prepare for quizzes, tests, and discussions. You cannot pass the class without doing homework.

You may seek assistance from Student Support Services to get help with homework assignments. If you are having difficulty in class, please make an appointment with m to discuss the problem. Please expect a minimum of nine hours of work per week on this class. Each student will need reliable internet access.

UA Rich Mountain Credit Hour Calculator

For every course credit hour, the typical student should expect to spend at least three clock hours per week of concentrated attention on course-related work. This includes, but is not limited to time attending class, or to out-of-class time spent reading, reviewing, organizing notes, preparing for upcoming quizzes/ exams. Problem solving, developing, and completing projects, are other allowable activities that enhance learning. Thus, for a three- hour course, a typical student should expect to spend at least nine hours per week dedicated to the course.

Course Requirements/Evaluation

Exams

Exams will not be weighted, with the exception of the midterm and the semester test.*******

The midterm/final can be proctored in Mena, Mt. Ida, or Waldron through UA Rich Mountain personnel. Contact Lisa Jumper ljumper@uarichmountain.edu on the Mena campus, or contact the Waldron campus by calling 479-637-5502, or the Mt. Ida campus by calling 870-867-5264. If you cannot make it to one of our campuses, you can go to another college or technical center and pay to have one of their testing staff proctor your test. Contact Mr. Burt for more information. Test questions will come from study guides, practice quizzes, or random textbook information.

Quizzes will be given weekly 300 points

(11 quizzes times 30 pts. per quiz. The lowest quiz grade is dropped)

If you miss a quiz for any reason, this will be the dropped quiz. Quiz questions will come from study guides, practice quizzes, or possible random questions from the text.

Art Gallery or Museum Visitation 70 points

The student will submit a one page paper about a work of art. As evidence of your visit, a signed brochure, a selfie, and a photo of the work of art you evaluate, will be required. The paper should be turned in by midnight of November 10.

The paper and brochure can be uploaded to Chalkboard. Take a photo of the brochure, then attach. The gallery closest to UA Rich Mountain is the Mena Art Gallery. http://menaartgallery.org Check out any gallery or museum online before attending it. They have different hours of operation and different policies. Some few galleries of museums allow no photographs. Many allow photographs as long as you do not use a flash.

The student turning this assignment in after Nov. 10 will be able to receive up to 88/100 points maximum for this assignment. After midnight of Nov. 16 the student will receive the grade of zero for the assignment. An out-of-town gallery or museum can be used as well.

Online Discussion (2 discussions entries each week due Wed. and Sun.) 60 points
15 weeks times 4 points for each week. This discussion needs to be about the current chapter of study. The student can look up information on the subject, put ideas in your words so you do not plagiarize. Also, use spell check before posting your discussion. Write something that has value in the discussion as opposed to rambling or being vague.

Class Procedures/Student Requirements

Missed Quizzes and Exams

Quizzes will not be allowed to be made up! You get to drop one quiz grade. Students will not be able to make-up a test unless there is a serious emergency, and in this case, the student must contact the instructor before the time in which the test is to be administered. Also, the student will be required to provide documentation that an emergency occurred. It will be up to the instructor whether the makeup test will occur in class or through a proctor. The instructor has the right to change the makeup test to a different test for this purpose. Expect an essay test over the material. Students not doing work the first week will be dropped.

Adult Content Warning

Each student should be aware that content in the text, art museum and other formats of distributing information/images in this course may contain nudity, language and themes that may be considered adult content. If this is personally unsuitable, it may be necessary to find another course that is more suitable for the student.

Blackboard Information

Blackboard has five primary purposes in our courses: (1) to provide a means for students to receive timely information about the course in general, assignments, grades, and announcements from the instructor, (2) to promote academic interaction between the instructor and students and among the students as they work through course material, (3) to provide a means for students to complete quizzes and other forms of evaluation, (4) to enhance the learning process by providing a variety of materials, and (5) to enable students to check their grades.

E-mailing the Instructor

IMPORTANT * The subject line of all e-mail messages related to this course should include the course number and the name of the student. Always include your first and last name at the end of all e-mails. It is difficult to reply to an e-mail when needed information is missing.

Academic Dishonesty Policy

Cheating on an exam or assignment will result in the grade of "F" for that assignment. It is the expectation of the instructor for the student to write their own unique yet knowledgeable papers.

Disability Policy

It is the policy of UA Rich Mountain to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to state and federal law. Any student with a disability who needs accommodations (for example: in seating placement, examinations, or access to information), should contact the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs Office, 394-7622, Ext. 1400.

Arkansas Clean Air Act

In compliance with the Arkansas Clean Air Act, UA Rich Mountain is a smoke and tobacco free facility. Students and guests are to refrain from the use of all tobacco products while on campus.

Student Misconduct

Students committing misconduct are subject to disciplinary sanction(s) and or restrictions. Misconduct or prohibited behavior includes, but is not limited to endangerment, harassment, disruption, sexual misconduct, dishonesty, illegal drugs and/or alcohol, fire or safety issues, gambling, property violations, computer violations or other violations as listed in detail in the UA Rich Mountain catalog.

Face Mask Policy: As per the direction of the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees, all students are required to wear a proper face covering that completely covers the nose and mouth while on campus and in class. Masks with holes or masks that do not completely cover the nose and mouth are not acceptable. Any student that does not have a proper mask will leave class and be referred to the Vice Chancellor or Student Affairs for possible disciplinary action.

Attendance Policy: It is the student's responsibility to immediately contact the instructor if they will not be present for class

Food and Drink: Food and drinks, including water are not allowed in the classroom at any time.

Campus Security

UA Rich Mountain strives to provide a safe learning environment; therefore, students who know of any security risk are asked to contact a college official.
