Could you use some extra money at college next year? Thinking about studying agriculture, environmental science, or conservation? Then listen up!

As part of a statewide education program, Rich Mountain Conservation District is offering a first place $1000 scholarship and a $500 second place scholarship for a local high school and college student, according to James Watkins, Chairman of the district. As well as receiving the local District Scholarship, the high school winner will be eligible to compete at both the area and state level. The Arkansas Association of Conservation Districts awards two scholarships ($1,000 and $500) based on student's essay.

The rules are simple, and the contest is open to all high school seniors as well as college students with a minimum 2.5 grade point average who are Polk County residents and will follow a conservation or agriculture related course of study. Contest entries must be submitted by April 1, 2022, to the Rich Mountain Conservation District at 508 7th Street Mena, AR 71953.

High School Counselors, 4-H Leaders, FBLA Sponsors, FFA Sponsors, and County Extension Agents have entry forms and rules. Those interested should call the Rich Mountain Conservation District office at 479-437-6044 or come by 508 7th St in Mena.

Sincerely,

James Watkins
Chairman

Trees are vital. As the biggest plants on the planet, they absorb carbon from the atmosphere, stabilize the soil, filter water, provide healthy habitat for wildlife and offer many additional benefits – for nature, people and biodiversity. Not only is it necessary to protect existing trees and plant new ones, but it’s also important to advocate and educate about trees and forest conservation within your community.

Return this form, your essay and two letters of recommendation by April 1, 2022, to the
