

Arkansas Community Colleges 2021 Academic All-Star Program

Are you interested in applying for the Arkansas Community Colleges 2021 Academic All-Star Scholarship? This is a scholarship opportunity for students completing their first year of college. After being selected by UA Rich Mountain, the recipient is presented with scholarship opportunities from Arkansas partner universities, and UA Rich Mountain provides a $500 scholarship for his/her final semester before transferring!

The selected individual will join UA Rich Mountain employees and your guest(s) at the annual ACC conference brunch when all 22 Arkansas two-year colleges' Academic All-Stars are recognized. Participating Universities send representatives to the conference to meet you after the brunch to discuss their scholarship opportunities. Details for the October conference will be provided when they become available later this spring.

Do you meet the following criteria?

Student Eligibility

Nominations are based on outstanding academic performance; awards, honors, and recognition for academic achievement; and service to the college and the community.
