GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT PLUS LOANS

- Parent must be the biological or adoptive parent of the student.
- Step-parents may apply if married to the biological or adoptive parent and the step-parent's income and assets are listed on the FAFSA.
- The maximum PLUS loan that can be offer is limited to the student's total cost of attendance minus other aid the student receives. Therefore, the final plus amount awarded could be less than your requested amount.
- The total amount of PLUS loan will be credited to the student's account in two equal disbursements.
- A student must be enrolled in an eligible degree program and in at least (6) six or more credit hours each semester.
- A Parent PLUS Master Promissory Note (MPN) must be completed at www.studentloans.gov.
- Student must be maintaining satisfactory academic progress in order to receive a PLUS loan.
- The repayment period for a PLUS loan begins at the time the PLUS loan is fully disbursed, and the first payment is due within 60 days after the final disbursement. However, a parent may request deferment from the U.S. Department of Education.

CERTIFICATION STATEMENT

By my signature, I hereby authorize UARM to process my Federal Parent PLUS Direct Loan. UARM is authorized to apply the loan to ALL mandatory and contracted fees associated with my student's attendance at the institution. These fees include but are not limited to, tuition, fees, room, board, books, and fines. This authorization is not mandatory and is valid for one academic year unless the authorization is rescinded by notifying the UARM Financial Aid Office in writing. I also understand that the U.S. Department of Education may deduct fees before my loan proceeds are sent to UARM.

NOTE

Any remaining credit balance after all charges have been paid will be refunded to the student.
