Course Conduct: The methods of instruction include lecture, independent work, in-class activities, group activities, student presentations, and written work. Students will access assignments and submit written material through the Blackboard portal unless otherwise directed. If the campus closes due to COVID-19, the course will continue as an online course and some assignments will be altered to be compatible as an online course.

Credit Hour Calculator: For every course credit hour, the typical student should expect to spend at least three clock hours per week of concentrated attention on course-related work, including but not limited to time attending class, as well as out-of-class time spent reading, reviewing, organizing notes, preparing for upcoming quizzes/ exams, problem solving, developing and completing projects, and other activities that enhance learning. Thus, for a three-hour course, a typical student should expect to spend at least nine hours per week dedicated to the course.

Credit Hour Definition: A credit hour is an amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally established equivalency that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks.

Speech Evaluation and Criteria
The Rubric for Formal Speeches will be provided to students prior to formal speech dates.
A formal outline and bibliography will be required for Informative and Persuasive Speeches. An outline will be required for Demonstrations speeches. A bibliography and/or resource credits must be included in the Multi-Media presentations.

Procedures/Student Requirements: Regular attendance, punctuality, and participation are expected. Students who miss a class are expected to complete assignments in Blackboard by the posted due date unless specific arrangements have been made with the instructor. Students are expected to log into Blackboard at least twice a week and check emails at least 3-4 times a week. Keeping up with emails will be vital for each student's success in this course. Students who do not complete the first and/or second week of class will be removed from the course.

Missing an excessive number of classes is detrimental to the success of students in this course causing them to fall behind. Students who do not attend class may receive a grade of NF which can negatively affect financial aid.

Students who are unable to submit assignments via Blackboard, have circumstances that require absences, or have a situation that requires extensions or any modifications to these requirements must make arrangements with the instructor in a timely manner. It is the student's responsibility to initiate those arrangements immediately.

Covid Policy: Students who are quarantined due to a diagnosis of Covid must have a doctor's note AND contact UARM Contact Tracing (contact.tracing@uarichmountain.edu) to report this in order to receive an excused absence. These students will transition to online status until allowed to return to class. These students are expected to stay up-to-date on assignments. Any student who is unable to complete assignments due to illness should notify the instructor.

Academic Policy: Cheating on a test or assignment will result in a zero (0) for that work for the fist offence. Images or information from sources used in presentations without bibliography and proper citations as well as using a speech created by another person is considered plagiarism. The first offence of plagiarism will result in a zero (0) for that assignment. Second offences of cheating or plagiarism can result in an "F" for the course. Additionally, disciplinary proceedings according to College policies may be initiated.

Face Mask Policy: Students are encouraged but not required to wear face masks in class and public spaces.

Food and Drink: Food and drinks should be kept to a minimum, and the instructor may designate these as interruptions and ban them from the classroom. When facemask mandates are in place, food and drinks are not allowed in the classroom at any time.

Other: No recording of any type (videos, photos, etc.) is allowed without prior permission from the instructor.

American with Disabilities: It is the policy of UA Rich Mountain to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to federal law, state law, and the college's commitment to equal educational opportunities. Any student with a disability who needs accommodations (ex: seating placement, examinations, or access to information on the web) should inform the Vice President for Student Affairs at the beginning of each semester. To contact the Vice President, students seeking accommodation should call 394-7622, ext. 1400.

Arkansas Clean Air Act: In compliance with the Arkansas Clean Air Act, UA Rich Mountain is a smoke and Tobacco free facility. Students and guests are to refrain from the use of all tobacco products while on campus, including electronic devices.

Student Misconduct: Students committing misconduct are subject to disciplinary sanction(s) and or restrictions. Misconduct or prohibited behavior includes but is not limited to endangerment, harassment, disruption, sexual misconduct, dishonesty, illegal drugs and/or alcohol, fire or safety issues, gambling property violations, computer violations, or other violations as listed in detail in the UA Rich Mountain catalog.

Student Support Services: The Student Support Services (SSS) is available to help students reach their educational goals through individualized instruction, counseling, and tutoring. There is no fee for these services. The computer lab is available for student in online classes. SSS is located in the Johnson Learning Commons in the Spencer Building.

UA Rich Mountain Mission: The University of Arkansas Rich Mountain provides transformative education to all learners.

The Art of Speaking: The art of speaking is more than a process of doing. It is a process of being. The art of speaking is use of the voice to create from the raw material of language, thought, knowledge, and feelings a composite that has the potential for great impact upon the listener.
