An Expert's View on Prescribed Burning in Oklahoma and Neighboring States

March 28 · 11 am
Ouachita Center

Light snack is provided.

UA RICH MOUNTAIN
SCIENCE CLUB

Dr. Omkar Joshi
Forest Economist and Associate Professor at Oklahoma State University

Dr. Omkar Joshi has conducted extensive research on economics of prescribed fire, associated costs, and role of prescribed burn associations in Oklahoma and neighboring states. In his seminar, Dr. Joshi will provide insights on prescribed burn costs, why some burning may be more expensive than others and how landowners feel about risks and liabilities associated with burning.