Course Conduct

This course is conducted through reading the test, discussion, writing short essay answers, and will contain quizzes to be completed in Blackboard. It is to the advantage of each student to complete work on time each week.

UA Rich Mountain Credit Hour Calculator

For every course credit hour, you should expect to spend at least three clock hours per week of concentrated attention on course-related work, including but not limited to time attending class, as well as out-of-class time spent reading, reviewing, organizing notes, preparing for upcoming quizzes/exams, problem solving, developing, and completing homework, and other activities that enhance learning. For a three-hour course, a typical student should expect to spend at least nine hours per week dedicated to the course. This includes time spent in class.

Course Requirements/Student Evaluation

Tests

There will be four exams given during the semester. Each exam will be worth 85 points.

Test 1	85 pts. with proctor
Test 2	85 pts. no proctor
Test 3	85 pts. with proctor
Test 4	85 pts. no proctor

Philosophy Paper 110 pts.

The student will write a complete three-page research paper; topics listed below. The works cited page will be page four. (One student per topic and post your pick in the Blackboard sign-up). Nov.2 is the deadline for submission; 10 pts. per day late fee after the deadline. This paper will be presented in 12 pt. size type, double spaced, and in MLA format. The student is required to find scholarly material to use as research. The thesis of the paper should explain the main ideas you will address in the paper. The student will explore the philosophical arguments of a certain philosopher with an intro, a section dealing with their arguments, and another section going into counterarguments. OR- The controversial topic should have an intro section, a section that explains the arguments for and another section that contains arguments against; these arguments are made by philosophers. The student will be allowed their opinion at the end of the paper, limit to ½ page. Submit the research paper in Blackboard.

The criteria for the paper will consist of the following: original thought, thorough coverage and understanding of the material, grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, and insight into the topic. Paper without works cited page or complete in-text citation will be given the grade of 0.

If the paper contains plagiarism or has been copied and sent through online text augmentation the grade of "F" will be assigned.

Research points 40 pts.

One book from the UA Rich Mountain library (5 pts.)
One quote from our text (5 pts.)
At least three articles from the library database such as Proquest (15 pts.)
One e-book source like Proquest (5 pts.)
One online scholarly site that is an education site (.edu) (10 pts.)

All research can be attached in Blackboard on or before midnight of October 24. Examples of research can be found in Blackboard in the first section. Please see me during the first two weeks if you do not understand how to find this information. Research will not be taken after Oct. 27, 10 pts. per day late fee.

In-Class Writing 90 pts.

There will be approximately writing assignment throughout the semester, the total of 90 points is available. It is important for the student to peruse the required text reading for each class. All writing assignments will be found in Blackboard. The student will be graded on the following:

original thought, thorough coverage and understanding of the material, grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, and insight into the topic.

Quizzes 300 pts.

There will be twenty quizzes during the semester and each quiz is worth 15 points to equal a grand total of 300 points. The quiz schedule is listed on the third and fourth pages of the syllabus, and deadlines can also be found in Blackboard. Quiz 21 is a make-up quiz and will take the place of the lowest quiz grade. Quizzes will not be reopened after the deadline. The study guide for quizzes can be found in Blackboard; most questions will be in the study guide.

Discussion 120 points

There will be a prompt in Blackboard throughout the semester for discussions. There is a total of 6 points for each of the 20 discussion prompts. The student is allowed to look up information on the subject, but make sure you put ideas into your own words to avoid plagiarism. Write something that has value in the discussion as opposed to rambling or being vague. Discussions must have three complete lines to receive one point, and at least 6 complete lines to receive 6 points. Posts with more than three mistakes total in capitalization, punctuation, or misspelled words will be given the grade of zero. Make sure to use spell check before you post.

Class Procedures/Student Requirements

Course Attendance/Tardy
The student that does not complete work during the first week of class will be removed from the roll.

Semester Calendar
We will follow the UA Rich Mountain schedule/calendar for breaks, testing, and weather days.

Inclement Weather Procedure
Listen to local radio and TV stations for UA Rich Mountain to be closed due to inclement weather. If a test is assigned for the day the college is closed, your instructor will make adjustments and announce the make-up process the next time the class meets. You can also go to the campus website for this information. Log on to www.uarichmountain.edu

UA Rich Mountain Guidelines
It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with the guidelines set up for this class as well as the guidelines pertaining to UA Rich Mountain. UA Rich Mountain guidelines can be found in the current UA Rich Mountain catalogue, and/or the student handbook.

Academic Dishonesty Policy
Cheating on an exam or quiz will result in the grade of "F" for that assignment. Plagiarism for the research paper will result in the grade of "F" for the class. Any student that is caught cheating will be directed to the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs.

Illness Policy: Students are encouraged but not required to wear masks in classroom and public spaces. For attendance purposes, a student who is displaying symptoms of illness must email: contact.tracing@uarichmountain.edu to determine next steps for an excused absence related to COVID or flu. Contacting an instructor DOES NOT start this process or guarantee an excused absence.

Food and Drink: Food and drinks, including water are not allowed in the classroom at any time.

Disability Policy
It is the policy of UA Rich Mountain to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to state and federal law. Any student with a disability who needs accommodations (for example:

in seating placement, examinations, or access to information), should contact the Associate Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs Office, 394-7622 ext. 1460.

Arkansas Clean Air Act
In compliance with the Arkansas Clean Air Act, UA Rich Mountain is a smoke and tobacco free facility. Students and guests are to refrain from the use of all tobacco products while on campus.
