This was a challenging course, but it was taught well with great resources.

Didn't explain well when asked questions about the materials learned. Wouldn't explain in other ways that students could understand.

Blackboard is dookie, in all respects.

This course was very hard. I never understood class examples or concepts. I always had to research/watch videos at home to grasp content.